Cookies policy: We use your online footage to improve our site's experience of browsing, anonymous traffic statistics, Google Analytics advertising features, and targeting our ads.

You have the option to disable the logging of Cookies wholly or partially from your browser, even you can place the setting to receive alerts when the sites have cookies enabled.

Please note that if you choose to block or partially block cookies, some parts of our site may not work as expected.

For more information, please refer to our cookies policy.

Other Goals: We will only use your personal information for the purposes for which we have collected, unless we reasonably believe we should use it for any other reason and that the reason is compatible with the original purpose.

If we need to use your personal information for an irrelevant purpose, we will notify you and explain the legal basis that allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal information without your knowledge or consent, in accordance with the above rules, when required by law.

5. Protect your Information

Papantoniou applies high levels of security, both technically and organizationally, when collecting and processing your data. This is regularly reviewed to ensure that these measures remain effective and updated through internal feedback as well as current technological developments.

6. Keeping Information

Papantoniou makes every effort to limit the retention of your Data to the minimum possible. In order to be sure that we meet our legal obligations as they arise from the legislation in force, we only keep your information as long as we really need it and only for the purposes we first acquired.

In most cases, this means we will keep your information as long as you continue to shop with us or use our services and if you decide to stop shopping from us for some time after you stop so that do not lose your rights if you start shopping with us again. After that either we will delete or anonymize your data with a specific algorithm so that it can no longer be linked to your individual.

In cases where your personal data is anonymised, it will only be for research or statistical purposes, so we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

In addition, in accordance with applicable laws, we need to keep basic information about our clients and associates (including contact, identity, financial information and transactions) for six years from the time they cease to be customers for tax purposes.

In addition, if you exercise your right of cancellation as described in paragraph 10, Section IV, it will be impossible to observe any of our contractual obligations, such as product warranty, unless you retain a relevant document proving our contractual obligation.

In some cases, you may want to delete your data: see section 8 (The rights of persons undergoing edits) below for more information.

7. Social media networks

Your interactions with various social media features and widgets that are on the site either by a third party or are hosted directly by our Company, governed by the privacy policy of the company providing this service.

Depending on your own settings or social media and messaging policies such as Facebook, Instagram or Twitter, you may be able to access certain information on Papantoniou and other organizations. You should check with these services to make sure you are happy with sharing this information.

8. Personal Data of Minors

Protecting and preserving the privacy of minors in Papantoniou is of major importance and we are trying to avoid collecting such data.

When and where it is necessary to collect such information, we apply procedures appropriate to that age group.

Particularly for the loyalty program of the children after the affiliation program has been confirmed, children's names are shadowed in a way that they cannot be recovered from any of the minors' data

If the age of the minor is under 16, we always ask for the consent of at least one of his / her parents or guardians.

9. Transfer of Your Personal Information to third parties

Papantoniou, in the context of promoting the well-meaning interests of its activities, may share information with carefully selected organizations that offer some services necessary for the conduct of its business. These include:

- ✓ Specialized service companies
- ✓ Training Organizations
- ✓ Insurance Companies
- ✓ Suppliers in the context of the individual competitions

No information is shared with any organization outside the Republic.

10. The rights of persons subject to treatment

Papantoniou takes seriously and promotes your own rights with respect to the collection and processing of your Personal Data. If you wish to exercise any of your following rights by email at privacy@papantoniou.com.cy or at the postal address at the end of this announcement.

For your own security and for our fuller legal compliance, we reserve our right to request further information necessary to confirm your identity when responding to an existing request. If you cannot identify yourself, we also reserve our right to refuse to respond to your request.

- I. Right to Review: You have the right to request information from us about your personal data stored in us, the purpose of the processing, and any third party recipients.
- II. Right of Correction: You have the right to request the immediate correction and / or completion of your personal data stored on us.
- III. Right to limit processing: You have the right to request the restriction of the processing of your personal data if you dispute the accuracy of your data stored in us, if the processing is illegal and if the data is no longer necessary, but you do not wish to delete the data and you require data for the foundation, exercise or support of legal rights, or in case you have notified your objection to the disclosure work.
- IV. Right to Delete: You have the right to request the deletion of your personal data stored by us

Note: When exercising the right to delete, we may be required to maintain or store data in accordance with applicable laws, contractual obligations, in the public interest, for the establishment or defense of legal claims or for the exercise of our legitimate rights. Such data will be limited instead of deleted so as to prevent their use for other purposes.

Also, if you exercise your right to delete and avoid your own inconvenience, we point out the provisions of Article 6 (6) above, concerning product warranties.

- V. Right to data portability: You are entitled to receive a copy of the data you have provided to us, which will be sent to you or a third party in a structured, commonly used and readable format. In case you request the direct sending of data to another data controller, this will only be done if it is technically feasible.
- VI. Right of objection: If your personal data is processed by legitimate interests pursuant to Article 6 (1) (f) of the GDPR, you have the right to opt-out at any time in accordance with Article 21 of the GDPR.

- VII. Right of Withdrawal of Consent: You have the right to withdraw your consent to the collection of the data at any time, which will be revoked for the future. Data collected until the revocation becomes legally valid is not affected by it. We hope you understand that processing your recall may take some time for technical reasons and that you may still receive messages from us in the meantime.
- VIII. Right to submit a complaint to a regulator: In such case where you think that your personal data processing violates data protection law or if your data protection rights have been violated in any other way, do not hesitate to contact us to inform us or file your complaint to the email dataprotection@papantoniou.com.cy or write us at the post address shown at the end of this document in order to assess it and for our internal improvement or alternatively you can file your complaint to the Data Protection Office <http://www.dataprotection.gov.cy>, the data protection supervisory authority of the Republic of Cyprus.
